Honesty - Quality - Safety - Passion

Guess Who

I have brown hair. My biggest pet peeve is when people are late. My first job was a tutor. My first vehicle was a 1999 Toyota Camry. My favorite hobby is Reading books and crocheting. An interesting fact about me is I have never broken a bone in my body before. My favorite place to visit is thrift stores while exploring little towns around Washington. My favorite holiday is Christmas. I would rather wake up early than sleep in. One word to describe me is tidy, and something I can't live without is candy.

Who am I??

Happy Birthday!!

As the year comes to an end, I want to say thank you all for the team effort in another year of growth and forward progress! The new office is now complete and will be a help for work and information flow. A big thank you to all involved with building the new office. This is an end to one chapter and the start of a new chapter. As the chapter changes, Cory will be moving on from TTAP construction for new adventures, we all want to say thank you for all he has done here and wish him success on his future journey. We have a lot of projects to build and growth to shape and share as we continue forward! Thanks again – Tyler Tapani
